VANUA CLAY
Fijian Artists

Vanua Clay (Fiji) is a family based clay making business that just started.

Three family members were working for an Arts and Crafts business at Mar-tintar, Nadi, and were going to be laid off when that business was to be sold.

The brothers decided to pull their re-sources together to buy the equipment from that Arts and Crafts organization and continue this clay making business to keep the family employed, and nurture the skills and knowledge already acquired.

Hence the birth of Vanua Clay (Fiji).

We also have an energetic, creative, talented group who work together in all conditions to make beautiful custom made pieces for orders and for individual sales
